

Urban Policy Development Consulting
Management Consultant Opportunity with
DC Public Schools, Special Education Division

UPD Consulting is working with the DC Public Schools, Special Education Division in transforming the division into one that is more efficient in areas such as applying data-based decision making and improving overall services. A five-person team has been in place since last summer, and the project will run at least through September 2011.

The ideal candidate will thrive in a fast-paced, high-pressure atmosphere. Team members “divide & conquer” to reach objectives, and the ideal candidate will be skilled at understanding scope and deliverables and taking ownership of task completion.

Management consulting skills needed include: good at process mapping, process reengineering, data analysis, meeting facilitation, and writing.

Experience in education experience is desired but not required.

Salary range is approximately $80,000-$90,000 depending on experience level, or around $55.00-$65.00/hour as a 1099 contractor. This is full-time position located in Washington, DC.

The position is available as soon as June 1.
